Indian Arm Sea-Kayak Therapy

Sea-kayak & beach barbecue adventure

Take a few hours out from your busy schedule and rejuvenate your senses with a little sea-kayak therapy before your next meeting.

Only 30 minutes from downtown awaits you a wilderness that few Vancouverites have visited: Indian Arm, one of the many scenic ocean inlets in the Pacific North West.

We pick you up from your meeting rooms downtown and take you on a spectacular ride through the rain forest along the Mountains of the North Shore of Vancouver.

At a small, seaside community, you embark on an easy paddle jaunt into breathtakingly beautiful British Columbia scenery. You travel in stable and comfortable 2-seater sea-kayaks. These individually crafted, classic wooden boats are elegant to look at and easy to handle. Their open cockpits make for easy entry and exiting the boats.

At all times you are accompanied by trained guides who ensure your comfort and interpret the wild life around you.

Wild life sightings include seals, herons, eagles, cormorants and star fish.

Highlight of the trip is a salmon barbecue, served on a remote beach with great views of the inlet.

Refresh yourself with a tasty 3-course picnic lunch that includes freshly grilled salmon served on real tableware because food should be a feast for the eye as well as for the palate.

Your destination after lunch is Deep Cove, a small resort community. Get your landlegs back and explore the eclectic boutiques and cozy coffee shops before our minibus takes you back to your hotel.

Experience of fitness are not required.
