Vancouver Sea Safari

Wild life excursion in spectacular West Coast scenery

Description

Take a seat on a 28 ft high-speed rigid hull inflatable for a thrilling 2 hour guided nature tour into the spectacular West Coast scenery of Howe Sound.

Wild life sightings include seals, false killer whales, bald eagles, cormorants, blue herons and a myriad of other shore birds.

Race along steep cliffs, explore caves, and view harbour seals at play. Points of interest are Pam Rocks, a Seal haul out. Cruise out into the Strait of Georgia to see spectacular views of Vancouver's skyline. Returning to Horseshoe Bay see the opulent waterfront mansions of West Vancouver, the home for Canada's wealthiest.

Trips are available three times daily.
