Killer Whales Safari and the historic fishing village of Steveston

Just south of Vancouver the Fraser River drains into the Pacific Ocean. The historic village of Steveston is the heart of the local fishing industry. Here fishermen sell their catch off the boat and here the best fish & chips are to be had.

Explore Steveston until your whale watching leaves on a high speed safari in search of Orcas. Sighting chances are 85 per cent. You travel in comfortable enclosed boats equipped with viewing platforms and wash rooms.

After the trip we return you to your hotel in Vancouver.
